Why not join us at Performers College for a week long Summer School?

Opened in 2003, our new purpose built performing arts complex is one of the best in the country!

From the time you enter the building you are assured of a warm welcome.

The Summer School week is one of the most popular of its kind and is usually full by February so do book early to ensure your place.

Tuition will be given by regular members and guest staff at Performers and will give an idea of life at a full time college.

Applicants should be aged 12 to 18 years at the date of the course and of a reasonable dance standard.

To book a place on the summer school, read through this leaflet then complete and return the detachable section together with your deposit as soon as possible.
